> Wealth is created, not taken. When your thought, your daily action and your dealings with people line up, you stop competing and start creating.

DO

- [ ] Write your clear mental image on one page: what you want, specifically, as if it is complete.
- [ ] Make today a success: list today's tasks and finish each one as well as you can.
- [ ] In every exchange today, give more in use-value than you take in cash-value.
- [ ] Notice one moment of hurry and slow down on purpose.

SAY

"I operate entirely upon the creative plane."

"I give more in use-value than I receive in cash-value."

"I advance the life of every person I touch."

REMEMBER

> Rise from the competitive plane to the creative plane.

> Every day is a success or a failure. Make today a success.

> Never hurry.

REFLECT

Where am I competing when I could be creating?

What would "more use-value" look like in my work this week?

Describe my completed picture in three sentences.
