MISSION ABUNDANCE · WORKSHEET

Unhurried

EPISODE
5 · STEP 7

> Hurry is scarcity wearing a watch. Move with calm assurance and act in faith: do your part completely, and trust the process.

DO

- [ ] When you notice rushing, take one slow breath before acting.
- [ ] Do one task today at half speed with full attention.
- [ ] Take only the next visible step on a big goal. The road appears as you walk it.
- [ ] Name your part, and name what you can leave to time.

SAY

"I am unhurried."

"Everything is moving."

"I do my part. I trust the process."

REMEMBER

> Nature never hurries, and yet everything is accomplished.

> Calm is not slow. Calm is clear.

> Faith is not passive. Stay awake to what is real.

REFLECT

Where does hurry show up in my body?

What is the next step my lantern shows me?

What is my part, and what can I let the wind do?
